

2/18/19 Jam Newsletter

School Store
Open Monday &
Wednesdays before school

Next
Intercession
3/15/19

Jam vans drop kids off at South Park, North Park, Herrmann Park, and the Rec Center nightly.

HOMEWORK HELP is offered every night at Jam. Computers are available, various supplies. Daily

Activities:

Monday: NO JAM

Tuesday: Makerspace - challenge Candy Math

Wednesday: Pizza Time

Thursday: Makerspace Free Time

Friday: Web Hunt and Computer Games

Jam details

Jam meets Monday – Thursday and on Fridays that we have school. We meet in the lunchroom right after school at 3:45pm – 5:00pm.

All students who attend Jam on a regular basis need to fill out a registration forms which can be picked up at the office or at Jam. See form for fee information.

Come hang out at a safe place, have a snack before the activities begin.

The Jam van will drop students off at South Park school, North Park school, Herrmann Park, or the BFACC aka Rec. Center. The van will leave around 5:05pm.

If you pick your student up, please come to the lunchroom doors which are on the west side across from the basketball courts.

Site Coordinator, Kristy Messner, phone or text: 605-641-3139 email: Kristy.Messner@k12.sd.us Check out Jam's Website at: <https://sites.google.com/site/bfmsjam/>

The Pencil
Box IS OPEN

We have all kinds of supplies for your school needs!!

Scholastic Book Fair

February 28, 2019

3:45 pm – 7:30 pm

March 1, 2019

8:00 am – 3:30 pm

Middle School Library

All BFMS Students are welcome to come and check Jam out!